

“Made in Kendall” Consumer Product Nomination Form

Nominations are accepted in October and November of each year for the annual “Made in Kendall” recognition. The recognition is granted by the Kendall County Board to products and services that represent the best of the county. Nominations are accepted in three divisions: Consumer Products, Industrial Products and Community Maker. Nominators may make up to three nominations in each division.

The Consumer Product division includes these products: (1) mass-market consumer products, (2) farmer’s market products and (3) farmer’s market foodstuffs. Criteria for being awarded the designation include product value, product quality, product durability, product design, and product uniqueness.
